Unfortunately as this is a relatively short trip to Frankfurt (I arrive early morning and will be departing late afternoon), I am unable to be in Munich on this occasion. I look forward to seeing you on my next trip to Germany.

Would it be possible to meet in Munich (even for dinner) - unfortunately both cannot make it to FFM on Monday. Also this way you could examine our operations, a quite prominent location in center of town and other senior members of the organization.
